

PRESS RELEASE

EVERYDAY@11 SNDTWU4U Admission 2020

July 22, 2020

Mumbai

Shreemati Nathibai Damodar Thackersey Women's University (SNDTWU) is the first Women's university in India as well as in the South-East Asia. Established in 1916, it is a University having postgraduate Departments, affiliated/conducted, autonomous/recognized Colleges and institutions across INDIA.

SNDTWU stands in the top five multidisciplinary Universities in Western India and ranked 33rd in all India according to The Week Hansa Survey of 2019. With its legacy of 104 years of women's education this university provides education in four mother tongues and allows students to write examination in any of these four Indian languages- Hindi, Marathi, Gujarati and English. The Last date for Admission for 2020-21 is August 31, 2020.

With the Corona pandemic and subsequent challenges, SNDTWU has decided to reach out to parents and students with details about its academic programmes for the year 2020-21. Due to difficulty of physical outreach, month long online sessions informing people about Postgraduate and Undergraduate programmes of the University have been planned starting 27th July. The programme has been titled as EVERYDAY@11am where SNDTWU faculty members will be available for the women and will help them know about Masters' programmes available for any graduates as well as for specialized programmes where eligibility conditions are specific to the discipline. Google Meet will be used to deliver this initiative.

On Wednesdays and Fridays undergraduate institutions will share details about their institutions and academic programmes. Special programmes like virtual visit to the campus, Meet the Head will also form the part of this special initiative by the University. Women interested in pursuing Master's Degree in the forthcoming academic year 2020-21 must attend this activity by SNDTWU. Professor Shashikala Wanjari, Vice Chancellor SNDTWU will launch this campaign on 27th July 2020 at 11am.

The link for access will be available on University Website (<https://sndt.ac.in/sndt4u-everyday-at-11>) and Facebook page of Vice Chancellor's office (<https://www.facebook.com/vcsecretariat/>). Participants can register (<http://bit.ly/SNDT4U>) to express their interest in the University Programmes.
