D.O. No. J.11011/4/2013-NSS

Dated November, 2013

Dear Vice Chancellor,

I would like to bring to your notice that the Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad Foundation and MAEER's MIT School of Government, Pune have taken initiative to bring together students from across the country in an Annual Conclave called Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad (Indian Student Parliament). Three such annual events have already been organized with great success and the fourth Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad is being organized during January 10-12, 2014. The basic objective of organizing this Conclave is to effectively involve the youth in the democratic process of the Country. The Event is supported by the Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports, Government of India and also gets support/participation from international agencies like UN, UNESCO, SAARC, Inter-Parliamentary Union, etc.

2. This is a non-partisan and apolitical Event, where deliberations are held on issues of contemporary significance. During the third Indian Student Parliament held in January, 2013 about 9,000 students participated and about 90 speakers expressed their views on various subject, including eminent personalities like Mark Tully, R. A. Marshellkar, Shabana Azmi, Muhammad Yunus, etc. in addition to eminent personalities like Aung San Suu Kyi, who addressed the Conclave through pre-recorded video message. A number of student leaders also spoke on the occasion.

3. During the fourth Indian Youth Parliament to be held during 10-12 January, 2014, deliberations will take place on a number of important subjects like (i) Preventing crime against women (ii) Political Leadership – what young India wants? (iii) Is Consumerism consuming India? (iv) Money and Politics: Is Democracy for sale? (v) Innovative education – empowering youth, (vi) Resolving naxalism through development etc. A number of eminent speakers are expected to speak on the occasion. The details of the Programme can be seen on the website www.bharatiyachhatrasansad.org.

4. Indian Students Parliament is playing an important role in transforming the outlook of the youth and reaffirming their respect for the democracy and its institutions. The NSS also aims at developing the personality and character of the young students and to develop a national outlook among them. The participation in Indian Student Parliament can greatly help in furthering the objectives of NSS.

5. In view of the above, I would request you to kindly consider encouraging the participation of NSS volunteers in the forthcoming Indian Student Parliament in January, 2014. The details of this event are on the web site www.bharatiyachhatrasansad.org. You may consider providing hyperlink from the University's website to www.bhartiyachhatrasansad.org so that the details can be seen by the concerned NSS ...2.
