Admission Process:

Students will appear for an interview and presentation of their portfolio for admission. For the entrance, 50 marks will be allotted to the interview, while the remaining 50 marks will be based on their bachelor's marks

Digital Portfolio:

At the end of semester students will submit a digital portfolio encompassing all assignments. Within this portfolio, they are required to furnish a conceptual note/process for each artwork, accompanied by an image of the respective artwork. This practice will serve as a valuable resource for comprehending the creative process by forthcoming student cohorts, as well as for documentation purposes.

Internal Assessment:

Ongoing evaluation will be conducted via internal assessment. Students will complete assignments through projects, discussions, seminars, report writing, presentations, etc., in the case of theoretical courses.

As for practical courses, assignments will be evaluated through a continuous assessment process.

External Assessment:

A university exam shall serve as the external assessment for theory courses. While a practical exam will not be conducted, students will participate in a viva and presentation before external jury at the end of each semester. During this jury session, they will present their artworks and provide an accompanying presentation on their work. Esteemed professional artists from the field will be invited as external jurors by the department. The jury will evaluate the coursework using the provided rubric and prescribed format. Feedback and recommendations from the external jury will be shared with the students in accordance with the prescribed format. (See Annexure 3)

Rubric for Internship Evaluation Scheme

| Evaluation Point | Marks | |
|------------------|-------|---|
| 1) Punctuality | 5 | Level 5: Exceptional Consistently early, meets all deadlines, communicates delays promptly, maintains unwavering punctuality, and demonstrates exceptional time management skills. |
| | 4 | Level 4: Exceeds Expectations Mostly arrives early, meets deadlines with rare extensions, communicates minor delays, maintains good overall punctuality, and effectively manages time |
| | 3 | Level 3: Proficient Usually on time with minor delays, generally meets deadlines with occasional extensions, communicates substantial delays, maintains adequate punctuality, and manages time well. |
| | 2 | Level 2: Needs Improvement Frequent lateness, struggles with deadlines needing reminders, inadequate communication about lateness, inconsistent punctuality, and needs improvement in time management. |
| | 1 | Level 1: Unsatisfactory Frequent lateness, consistently misses deadlines, rarely communicates about lateness, serious punctuality issues, and poor time management skills affecting productivity. |
| 2) Sincerity | 5 | Level 5: Exemplary Consistently communicates transparently, puts forth genuine effort, upholds unwavering integrity, fosters respectful collaboration, and actively seeks personal growth. |
| | 4 | Level 4: Strong Usually communicates openly, consistently shows dedicated effort, maintains ethical behavior, contributes to positive interactions, and is receptive to feedback. |
| | 3 | Level 3: Proficient Generally communicates sincerely, displays proficient effort, demonstrates ethical conduct with minor exceptions, cooperates respectfully, and considers feedback. |
| | 2 | Level 2: Developing Inconsistently communicates transparently, effort varies, occasional ethical lapses, interactions sometimes lack respect, and struggles with feedback. |
| | 1 | Level 1: Unsatisfactory Frequently lacks transparent communication, consistently falls short on effort, disregards ethics, disrupts team dynamics, and resists feedback consistently. |
| 3) Initiative | 5 | Level 5: Exceptional Consistently takes innovative steps beyond tasks, independently solves complex challenges, actively seeks additional learning opportunities, collaborates as a mentor, and consistently introduces novel ideas. |
| | 4 | Level 4: Exceeds Expectations Takes initiative to expand tasks, creatively solves problems, engages in extra learning, collaborates effectively, and contributes fresh perspectives. |
| | 3 | Level 3: Proficient Occasionally goes beyond tasks, addresses challenges with some independence, seeks learning opportunities, cooperates well with others, and suggests improvements. |
| | 2 | Level 2: Needs Improvement Rarely takes initiative beyond tasks, struggles with problem-solving independently, focuses mainly on assigned work, engages in basic collaboration, and occasionally suggests minor improvements. |
| | 1 | Level 1: Unsatisfactory Rarely shows initiative, heavily relies on guidance for problem-solving, lacks engagement in learning opportunities, minimally collaborates, and seldom offers improvement suggestions |
| 4) Commitment | 5 | Level 5: Exemplary Demonstrates unwavering dedication, consistently going above and beyond, actively seeks additional responsibilities, willingly invests extra time, and exhibits a strong sense of ownership. |
| | 4 | Level 4: Strong Displays strong commitment, meets expectations consistently, takes initiative to support team goals, occasionally invests extra effort, and shows responsibility towards tasks. |
| | 3 | Level 3: Proficient Maintains satisfactory commitment, meets requirements consistently, participates willingly in team efforts, demonstrates consistency in effort, and takes responsibility for assigned work. |
| | 2 | Level 2: Needs Improvement Exhibits uneven commitment, sometimes falling short of expectations, lacks proactive involvement in team endeavors, occasionally requires motivation, and inconsistently fulfills responsibilities. |
| | 1 | Level 1: Unsatisfactory Demonstrates minimal commitment, frequently misses expectations, lacks enthusiasm for team efforts, rarely puts in extra effort, and often neglects responsibilities. |

| | 2 | Level 2: Needs Improvement Demonstrates an inconsistent attitude, occasionally impacting team dynamics negatively, shows reluctance toward challenges, and needs encouragement to maintain positivity. |
| | 1 | Level 1: Unsatisfactory Frequently exhibits a negative attitude, often causing disruptions in the team, struggles with challenges, and has a notable adverse impact on the work environment. |
| 6) Understanding of concepts | 5 | Level 5: Exemplary Demonstrates an exceptional grasp of complex concepts, applies theoretical knowledge effectively to practical situations, and consistently provides insights that enhance project outcomes. |
| | 4 | Level 4: Strong Displays a strong Application of core concepts, effectively integrates theoretical understanding into tasks, and consistently contributes valuable insights to discussions. |
| | 3 | Level 3: Proficient Maintains a solid grasp of fundamental concepts, applies theoretical knowledge competently, and contributes insights that contribute to task accomplishments. |
| | 2 | Level 2: Needs Improvement Exhibits uneven understanding of key concepts, struggles at times to translate theory into practice, and may require additional guidance to fully comprehend complex ideas. |
| | 1 | Level 1: Unsatisfactory Displays a limited understanding of essential concepts, struggles to apply theoretical knowledge, and frequently requires significant guidance and clarification |
| 7) Execution | 5 | Level 5: Exemplary Consistently executes tasks flawlessly, demonstrating exceptional attention to detail, precision, and a proactive approach that consistently exceeds expectations. |
| | 4 | Level 4: Strong Executes tasks competently, consistently delivering high-quality work, paying attention to details, and showing initiative to ensure tasks are completed effectively. |
| | 3 | Level 3: Proficient Executes tasks with proficiency, generally meeting requirements and standards, and effectively manages work to achieve objectives within established guidelines. |
| | 2 | Level 2: Needs Improvement Displays inconsistent execution of tasks, occasionally falling short of expectations, requiring additional guidance to meet standards, and demonstrating a need for improved attention to detail. |
| | 1 | Level 1: Unsatisfactory Consistently struggles with task execution, failing to meet expectations, showing significant lapses in attention to detail, and frequently requiring extensive supervision and intervention |
| 8) Work quality | 5 | Level 5: Exemplary Consistently produces work of exceptional quality, demonstrating meticulous attention to detail, creativity, and a consistent ability to exceed expectations. |
| | 4 | Level 4: Strong Delivers work of consistently high quality, showing proficiency in meeting expectations, attention to detail, and occasional displays of creativity. |
| | 3 | Level 3: Proficient Maintains solid work quality, consistently meeting standards and expectations, and demonstrates effective attention to detail and accuracy. |
| | 2 | Level 2: Needs Improvement Produces work with occasional quality issues, requiring guidance to meet expectations, and showing a need for improvement in attention to detail. |
| | 1 | Level 1: Unsatisfactory Consistently produces work with significant quality deficiencies, failing to meet expectations, lacking attention to detail, and requiring constant intervention and revision |
| 9) Application of knowledge | 5 | Level 5: Exemplary Consistently demonstrates a sophisticated application of theoretical knowledge, effectively adapting concepts to complex real-world scenarios, and contributing innovative solutions. |
| | 4 | Level 4: Strong Regularly applies theoretical knowledge effectively to practical situations, demonstrating a strong ability to bridge the gap between theory and practice. |
| | 3 | Level 3: Proficient Demonstrates a solid application of acquired knowledge to |

| | | |
|-------------------|---|--|
| | | tasks, consistently translating theoretical concepts into practical applications. |
| | 2 | Level 2: Needs Improvement Displays uneven application of knowledge, occasionally struggling to connect theory with practical tasks, and requiring guidance to ensure accurate implementation. |
| | 1 | Level 1: Unsatisfactory Frequently struggles to apply knowledge effectively, showing significant difficulties in connecting theory to practical situations, and requiring constant support and direction. |
| 10) Innovation | 5 | Level 5: Exemplary Consistently demonstrates a remarkable ability to generate groundbreaking ideas, fosters a culture of innovation, and contributes significantly to unique solutions that drive the organization forward. |
| | 4 | Level 4: Strong Frequently contributes innovative ideas and approaches, fostering an environment that encourages creative thinking and occasionally introducing unique solutions. |
| | 3 | Level 3: Proficient Regularly suggests fresh ideas, contributing to new perspectives, and occasionally provides innovative solutions to challenges. |
| | 2 | Level 2: Needs Improvement Occasionally offers innovative suggestions but often relies on traditional approaches, requiring encouragement to think more creatively. |
| | 1 | Level 1: Unsatisfactory Rarely exhibits innovation, struggles to suggest unique ideas, and tends to rely heavily on conventional methods without introducing novel solutions |
