About the College and the SNTD Women's University:

The SNTD Arts and Commerce College for Women, Pune is a constituent College of the SNTD Women's University, Mumbai. The vision of the great social reformer, Bharatratna Maharshi Dhondo Keshav Karve, was translated into reality by the foundation of a Women's University named as Indian Women's University, with its first college at Pune in 1916. With a generous support from Sir Vitthaladas Thackersey, an industrialist with social orientation, Indian Women's University was named as Shreemati Nathibai Damodar Thackersey (SNTD) Women's University in the year 1920. The head office of the University was shifted to Mumbai in 1936.

In 1951, the University acquired statutory recognition from the Government of Maharashtra along with the rare privilege of jurisdiction across the country. Today, the University has four campuses at Pune, Churchgate (Mumbai), Juhu (Mumbai), and Shriwardhan (Konkan). It has thirteen constituent colleges and one hundred and seventy four affiliated colleges in the states of Maharashtra, Gujarat, Goa, Madhya Pradesh, and Uttar Pradesh.

The University founded with one programme offered to five students has grown to two hundred programmes offered through twelve faculties to more than seventy thousand students.

The mission statement of the University and the College is "Sanskrita Stree Parashakti" which means "An Enlightened Woman is a Source of Infinite Strength". 'Empowerment of Women through Higher Education' is our main objective.

About Centre for Educational Development Administration (CEDA):

Centre for Educational Development Administration (CEDA) is a voluntary organization which aims at facilitating Higher Education Institutions and their stakeholders with a view to enhance quality in various aspects of their functioning.

CEDA is an initiative of likeminded College Principals and Teachers who have been providing Consultancy and Training services to College Principals, Teachers, Administrative Staff and so on. Activities of CEDA also include Career Guidance for Students, Assistance in Accreditation Process and Academic and Administrative Audits of HEIs.

CEDA also publishes a periodical 'EDUSEARCH' to promote research culture in HEIs and to provide a platform for exchange of ideas and thoughts in academic circles with a view to appreciate healthy and best practices in higher education.

Under the able leadership of Prin. Aniruddha Deshpande, President of CEDA, all the members of CEDA, strongly believe in proactive approach, positive thinking, and passionate team work.

CEDA as a co-organizer of the two days' seminars on the NEW QIF, and NAAC, looks forward to newer insights into the chosen theme.

About the Seminar:

The new accreditation guidelines of NAAC are brought in force from 1 July 2017. Now, all the institutions will be graded as per the new seven-point grading system. As per these guidelines, the IQACs are responsible for performance evaluation, quality up-gradation and continuous improvement within the institution. The assessment and accreditation process is speeded up with more objectivity and transparency by application of ICT solutions. The ICT-enabled services are used for data validations. This process represents an explicit Paradigm Shift; making it ICT enabled, objective, transparent, scalable and robust. The Shift is: from qualitative peer judgment to data based quantitative indicator evaluation. The scores will be system generated based on on-line evaluation and peer judgment. The third party validation of data is also introduced in this new process. The SSR has total 121 'Qualitative metrics' (QM) and 'quantitative metrics' (QnM) for colleges. A stage of Student Satisfaction Survey is introduced in the assessment process. The SSR submission is to be done on-line.

This Seminar aims at identifying and understanding issues and challenges in front of the Colleges and the IQACs with reference to selected areas. This Seminar will provide a forum to experts, academicians, and practitioners to discuss and also propose strategies to enhance and strengthen the Quality Movement of NAAC Accreditation.

This Seminar will be inaugurated at the auspicious hands of Dr. Jagannath Patil, Adviser, NAAC; and Honorable Vice Chancellor of SNTD Women's University, Mumbai, Prof. (Dr.) Shashikala Wanjari will preside in the Inaugural Function. The Valedictory Function will be in the auspicious presence of Prof. (Dr.) Nitin R. Karmalkar, Vice Chancellor, SPPU and will be chaired by Dr. V. N. Magare Pro-Vice Chancellor SNTD Women's University, Mumbai.

The Colleges and Universities can nominate Principal or Vice Principal / Head of the Department, IQAC Coordinator or member, and Administrative Head for this seminar.
