Dear Participant,

I am delighted to present you with this Certificate of Participation to recognize your important contribution to this GUINNESS WORLD RECORDS title.

At Guinness World Records, we have been measuring, verifying and recording the world's achievements since 1954. Today, our mission is to maintain an archive of records that inspires, engages and entertains people across the globe, and celebrates the world's best.

The record that you participated in is now one of the 40,000 world records that are held on the GUINNESS WORLD RECORDS database. Of the thousands of applications we receive every month, less than 5% actually make it to become an official entry in our archive. As a member of this select group, you should be extremely proud of your achievement.

On behalf of Guinness World Records, I would like to personally congratulate you on your GUINNESS WORLD RECORDS achievement.

1. Introduction

The Julius-Maximilians-Universität, Würzburg is one of the oldest universities of Germany and its establishment dates back to 1402. The University has a rich history of academic research and the distinction of 14 Nobel Laureates having done research here. The University has a Professorship for Adult and Continuing Education in Institut für Pädagogik (Institute for Education) which offers graduate, post graduate and Ph.D programmes.

In the recent past, the Institute for Education under the dynamic leadership of Prof. Dr. Regina Egetenmeyer, Director has been actively associating with educational institutions in India to promote internationalism in adult education. Many of the programmes are supported under the DAAD.

Prof. Vandana Chakrabarti, Prof. Regina Egetenmeyer and Dr. Anita Priyadarshini

In Dec 2017, the Professorship of the Institute for Education invited Prof. Vandana Chakrabarti, Director, Lifelong Learning and Extension, SNDT Women's University, Mumbai and Dr. Anita Priyadarshini, Associate Professor, STRIDE, Indira Gandhi National Open University, New Delhi to teach a Seminar (Course) for its Post Graduate students.

This Report highlights the teaching experiences of Prof. Vandana Chakrabarti and Dr. Anita Priyadarshini during this Visiting Professorship at JM University.

2. The Seminar(Course): Transformation through Flexible Learning System- An Indian Experience

Prof. Vandana Chakrabarti and Dr. Anita Priyadarshini designed, developed and taught a course entitled 'Transformation through Flexible Learning System - An Indian Experience'. This topic of the Seminar was decided after a great deal of discussion, study and reflection by the Visiting Professors. The course was also aimed at fulfilling the request of Prof. Regina who desired that post graduate students should have an exposure to philosophies and movements of adult education in other countries. It was felt that the students of the Institute would benefit from the rich experiences of India in the areas of adult education and flexible learning. The seminar was jointly conducted for students of the Masters' level of the Institut für Pädagogik, J.M.University, Würzburg. The total duration of the seminar was 30 hours and was conducted between December 2 to 22, 2017 at the Bibliotheks-und Seminarzentrum, Room 00.212 (Seminar Room, Room 212), University of Würzburg.

Dear Vikram Kulkarni,

We are pleased to inform you that you have been awarded the Asiatic Society's (Social Science) Junior Research Fellowship for your research Project on "Cultural Study of Nomadic Devotee Tribe - Peddamavandlu (Potraj) through their Painted Wooden Shrines and Rituals". The tenure of the Fellowship is for One year from 1st April 2018 to 31st March 2019.

You will be receiving a Fellowship grant of Rs. 25,000/- p.a. The mode of payment will be as follows:

1. The first installment of 10% of the total value of the fellowship awarded will be paid to you on receiving your acceptance of the award.
2. You are required to submit a six monthly report which is two to three pages in length, giving the status of your work, and stating what remains to be done.
3. The last and final installment will be made after receipt of your final dissertation which should be of approximately 10,000 to 25,000 words, apart from quotations from texts, an abstract, references and bibliography. The dissertation should be submitted to the Society in soft and hard copies for consideration for publication in its Journal. It should be of the standard of a research paper acceptable for publication in a refereed journal. The dissertation will be sent to an expert in the field for evaluation. At the end of the year, you are also expected to give an article based on your project.

If the research project is abandoned during the grant period, the Society will recover the Fellowship amount awarded to you.

Congratulations! I wish you all the best for your project.

Yours Sincerely,

Prof. Vispi R. Balaporia

Tagore Literacy Award 2018

Professor Vandana Chakrabarti

The Indian Adult Education Association instituted Tagore Literacy Award in 1987 to commemorate the 125th Birth anniversary of the great poet Gurudev Rabindranath Tagore and is given annually to individuals/institutions for their outstanding contribution towards promotion and development of literacy among women.

The award for the year 2018 is being presented to Professor Vandana Chakrabarti, Director, Lifelong Learning and Extension, SNDT Women's University (SNDTWU), Mumbai for her outstanding contribution to teaching, research and extension in adult and continuing education.

Born on January 25, 1959, Professor Vandana Chakrabarti completed her school education from Kolkata. She studied for Bachelor's Degree in Psychology in the University of Kerala. She took both Masters' and Ph.D. in Social Work from the Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai. A gold medalist from University of Kerala, Prof. Vandana was a recipient of National Merit Scholarship for M.A. and UGC fellowship for Ph.D. She was also a topper in the PG Diploma in Education Management which she completed from SNDTWU.

Professor Vandana joined as Director, Department of Continuing and Adult Education & Extension Work in SNDTWU in 1993 and spent a major part of her career in this position. She also worked as Director, Board of Colleges and University Development in SNDTWU for some time. She was a Pro Vice Chancellor of this University for five years from June 2011 to May 2016. Before joining SNDTWU she taught Social Work in Bishop Heber College, Cauvery College for Women and then in Bharathidasan University, Tiruchirapalli.

As a Director, she initiated a large number of community based courses and training programmes and fortified the network with other departments, colleges and NGOs with whose collaboration the academic resources of the University were used to strengthen the masses. Under her stewardship continuing education opportunities were offered to those already in employment across a large number of occupations and wished to acquire advanced skills with certification. Skill based diploma and certificate courses were also offered to those who wished for a change of career or to enter new occupations. During her directorship the department got NLM-UNESCO Award in the year 2002 in appreciation of the excellent work done in the field of continuing education.

Professor Vandana has been instrumental in initiating Master's Programme in Non-Formal Education and Development to provide professional manpower in the area of adult education. She has marshaled the development of e-content for Masters' programme in Adult Education and sought expertise from academicians and expert practitioners from all over the country to produce high quality learning material which is uploaded on UGC website. A Fulbright Fellow and a scholar of repute, Professor Vandana was invited to teach a short course in Julius Maximilian University, Wurzburg, Germany in December 2017.

Professor Vandana has assisted in numerous ways strengthening government policy and programmes by contributing in many committees, preparing draft documents, reviewing flagship schemes and evaluating programmes, providing professional guidance to different universities and NGOs for improving programme planning and implementation.

Professor Vandana has aligned herself with this very important national cause of adult education and has assisted the government in innumerable ways. Her commitment to the field of adult literacy spreads from field outreach programmes at the grassroots to initiating post-graduate programme in the University for strengthening the discipline of adult and non-formal education to contribution to policy and practice.

The Indian Adult Education Association acknowledges the excellent contribution made by Professor Vandana Chakrabarti in the field of adult education, especially for women and feels privileged to present her the Tagore Literacy Award for the year 2018.

Dear Madhavi:

Congratulations! We are delighted to inform you that through a competitive review process, we have selected you as a recipient of the Sara and George McCune Scholarship. Your scholarship is designated for your participation in the Summer 2019 Mixed Methods Workshop to be held on June 19-21, 2019 at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor, Michigan, USA.

This scholarship offers up to $3,000 to cover the workshop registration fee, your travel to and from Ann Arbor, and lodging the day before and during the workshop (up to 4 nights, depending on the travel days). The registration fee covered by the scholarship is $900 for student and $1,200 for non-student which includes course fee, breakfast and lunch on workshop days. Please note that you will be responsible for any lodging or meals outside of the workshop as described above. The award is not transferable to another individual or to another workshop.

Please let Satoko Motohara (smotohar@uimch.edu) know as soon as possible if you will be accepting this scholarship, and she will instruct you as to how to register for the workshop. If we do not hear back from you by April 1, 2019, we will offer your spot to another individual. We look forward to hearing from you soon.

Dear Dr. Vikram Vijay Kulkarni,

The Tagore Centre for the Study of Culture and Civilization was established at the Indian Institute of Advanced Study, Shimla on the 150th birth anniversary of Gurudev Rabindranath Tagore. One of the activities of Tagore Centre is to award fellowships to scholars who are engaged with concerns similar to those which preoccupied Tagore.

I am delighted to inform you that the Fellowship Award Committee has proposed and the Chairman, Governing Body has accepted your name for the award of a Tagore Fellowship. It is therefore my privilege to invite you as a Tagore Fellow.

The period of Fellowship ranges from six months to two years. Please do convey your acceptance and inform us about the subject/title of your project and the time period within which you propose to complete it.

I look forward to welcoming you at the IIAS and to your joining our community of Fellows and Staff. The IIAS is a special place with a distinct character. Its spirit can only be maintained by all of us coming ourselves to the goal for which it was set up to support the life of the mind. In the past decades, we have had the privilege of having with us many illustrious scholars. It is my honour to welcome you to be part of this great tradition and I hope that you too will keep aloft the spirit of IIAS.

Enclosed is the list of rules which we expect Fellows to follow. Please read them carefully since they concern issues pertaining to the submission of manuscript, leave conditions, fellowship continuation, stay at the IIAS, etc. If these terms and conditions are acceptable to you, please do sign a copy of this letter as a confirmation of your acceptance and send it to us within a fortnight from the date of receipt of this letter. An undertaking to be given by the Fellows, accepting the terms and conditions of the Fellowship, as mentioned in this Fellowship Offer Letter is enclosed herewith. You are requested to fill the same and send it to the Institute along with your letter of acceptance of the Fellowship. However, in no way shall the Institute entertain any request to join after six months from the date of issue of this letter/e-mail.

I look forward to hearing from you, at your earliest convenience. Please write to me if you have any concerns.

With best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

(Makarand R. Pranjape)
